As the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona celebrates its 35th anniversary and we reflect on some of our key milestones, we are reminded of the vision of our founders. Their foresight and leadership encouraged and inspired TRUST in our organization and provided the platform essential to our success.

As you read the pages of this report, we invite you to step back in time with us and read the stories of the individuals that helped build the Community Foundation. These individuals gave of their time, talent and treasure to build a house in which all are welcome and have a voice in impacting the place we call home.

Community foundations were founded 100 years ago by bankers to serve a market gap – a need for a community-based organization knowledgeable about its needs that could ensure that individuals' charitable intent was invested for impact and honored FOREVER.

We thank our founders, volunteers and staff who have for 35 years worked tirelessly to build the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona. They gave us the opportunity to continue to lead and inspire our donors and the community to progress on our common journey of improving Southern Arizona.

The Visionaries

Thanks to these five founders for their belief that the establishment of a community endowment would create a solid foundation to better our community for generations to come. From left to right, George "Buddy" H. Amos Jr., James "Jim" Burns, Jim Click Jr., Edward R. Moore and F. Grainger Weil.

The Community Foundation's founders believed there is power in numbers. They knew that collaboration accelerates impact. They were convinced that philanthropy would shape our future.

The model of public philanthropy for our region, through the creation of the community's own endowment fund, came from our founders. Their vision for a more vibrant and thriving Southern Arizona continues to be built by people like you.

You've grown the Community Foundation's charitable assets to more than $115 million over the past 35 years. Together, along with other passionate individuals, families and businesses, you've turned to the Community Foundation to facilitate your giving, effectively changing lives and creating impact in areas including animal welfare, the arts, education, health and human services, economic development and the environment.

We dedicate this publication to our founders for their vision, and to you for bringing their vision to reality.

The Stewards

Thanks to all who serve and have served on our board and staff for the past 35 years. Pictured left to right: Darryl Dobras (Trustee), Joseph Blair (Trustee), Missy Bowden (CFO) and Jan Leshar (Trustee). For a complete list of Trustees and Staff see page 27.

At the Community Foundation our Board of Trustees and staff are dedicated to safeguarding and stewarding your charitable vision, now and for generations to come. We have an in-depth understanding of the issues, opportunities and resources that shape Southern Arizona. We can help you learn more about local agencies and programs that make a difference in the areas you care about most. On your behalf, we invest in the long term and bring people and organizations together, convening diverse voices to address local issues and seek opportunities for permanent and positive change.

You tell us about your passions and we take action. This year alone, we targeted poverty and its effects on children through a competitive grant round. To promote the use of hospice services and the proactive planning for end-of-life, we hosted a competitive grant round and gave to regional nonprofits working to ease the transition from life to death for everyone involved.

And the Pima Alliance for Animal Welfare, one of our initiatives, has made exciting progress, making significant strides in ensuring that all Pima County companion animals have a loving home and humane care.

By providing you with local knowledge and guidance to make the most philanthropic impact, as well as staying on the pulse of our community's most pressing needs, we are poised for a future in which positive community change has no limits.

The Changemakers

For 35 years, generous people like you have planted seeds of change in our community. You are the leaders, the inspiration and the role models.

You've seen the challenges our community faces and have taken steps to improve the quality of life for all in Southern Arizona through philanthropy.

From giving your time, talent or treasure, you've given because there is an issue close to your heart. Dr. Augusto and Martha Ortiz, for instance, created an endowment to ensure rural communities received access to health care. Bill and Kathy Kinney came to the Community Foundation to simplify their giving, focusing on hunger, veterans issues, animal welfare and children. Donors like Betsy Bolding, Joan Kaye Cauthorn, Larry and Florence Adamson, Sarah Smallhouse, Melody S. Robidoux and hundreds of others turned to the Community Foundation to enhance their charitable impact. Families have also shared their values with one another, passing down the power of philanthropy to ensure that positive change would continue from generation to generation.

Whether providing food and shelter for a family or transforming end-of-life care in our region, your gifts pay forward a legacy of helping others. Pooled with other donors from the Community Foundation's family, you've contributed more than $145 million to make our community a better place to work, live and raise a family.

Change starts with just one individual, and is underscored and magnified by the collective impact of many. These legacies of generosity lead the way for our community Now & Forever.

2014 Year of Impact

Collective Impact Initiative: Large-scale community issues are addressed through collaboration.

- The Ajo Regional Food Project received $60,000 to continue to transform Ajo, Arizona from a food desert to a food oasis.
- The ELDER Alliance received $62,000 to continue to engage and empower older adults across Tucson to create the ideal community in which to live and grow old gracefully.

Poverty Grant Round: A total of $220,000 was granted to 17 organizations that focus on children living in poverty.

End of Life Grant Round: $135,727 was granted to nine organizations dealing with end-of-life issues in Tucson and Southern Arizona.

African American Initiative: Launched in November 2013 with a community gathering and needs assessment, the group has one simple goal: award dollars and foster collaboration among organizations and individuals serving the most pressing needs in the African American and greater Tucson community.

Scholarships: 117 scholarships, totaling $345,339, were awarded to qualified high school and college students in Southern Arizona. Scholarship funds can be used for tuition, fees, books, supplies, and/or equipment.

Community Interactive: Moderated by former host of NPR's Talk of the Nation, Neal Conan, and a panel of regional experts, the Community Foundation and Arizona Public Media produced POVERTY: The Working Poor to shine the light on the economic struggles our friends and neighbors face.

Nonprofit Loan Fund of Tucson and Southern Arizona: Kicked off in March 2014, with three loans to YWCA Tucson, Wingspan and International School of Tucson, the Nonprofit Loan Fund is a resource to help strengthen the financial capacity of nonprofits by providing loans and financial education.

Pima Alliance for Animal Welfare: An initiative of the Community Foundation, the group currently has three focus areas: a trap/neuter/return program for community cats; a marketing campaign to adopt locally, culminating in a mega-adoption event in Spring 2015; and a program to help housebound seniors and disabled individuals get what they need for their pets.

Our Affiliates

Santa Cruz Community Foundation promotes philanthropy and assists with the creation of a healthier, more productive community for the residents of Santa Cruz County.

Oro Valley Community Foundation seeks to provide resources that contribute to improving and sustaining the quality of life throughout the Oro Valley region, including San Manuel, Oracle, Catalina, Marana and northwest Tucson.

Stone Canyon Community Foundation assists local charitable organizations that help young people in Oro Valley and Tucson get on track and stay there, placing special emphasis on early childhood education, high school graduation, and the development of life skills.

Our Programs

Social Venture Partners Tucson (SVP) inspires and promotes philanthropy using a venture capital approach to effect social change. SVP combines the power of business with the passion of philanthropy to enhance philanthropic education and invest in innovative nonprofit organizations. SVP uses a high-engagement model that pools the financial, professional and human resources of partners to achieve long-term impact and create a culture of philanthropy. Building a dynamic connection between entrepreneurial energy and grassroots innovation. SVP links individuals with nonprofit organizations to make a hands-on difference.

Center for Planned Giving (CPG) is an impartial philanthropic resource for nonprofit organizations, professional advisors and donors. Created through a partnership between the Community Foundation and Leave A Legacy® Southern Arizona, CPG is dedicated to increasing the planned and major gifts made to charitable organizations in the community.

Our Services

Individuals and Families

Every day, professionals of the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona assist individuals and families with defining what they care about most and creating a plan for their philanthropic giving. By partnering with the Community Foundation, these individuals and families receive personalized service and benefit from CFSA's extensive knowledge of the community, and a plan that aligns with their interest and passion. There is never a "one size fits all" solution:

- Some plans are designed to support a specific charity over a number of years, or to support a particular community cause of the giver's choosing
- Other plans allow the individual or family to recommend grants to various charities year after year
- Still other plans may boost an individual's or a couple's income for life, resulting in a generous future gift to charity
- And other plans help build our community's endowment fund, providing a path for the Community Foundation to address Southern Arizona's most pressing needs now and into the future; or by supporting the Community Foundation's General Scholarship Fund, providing higher education assistance to local students who are often the first in their families to earn college degrees.

Southern Arizona Businesses

Corporations and businesses large and small depend on the Community Foundation's expert knowledge and administrative support to handle their community giving. While individual business needs vary, some of the ways the Community Foundation can help include:

- Distributing grants on behalf of the business, thereby reducing its own internal processes
- Ensuring that grants are sent to legitimate and well-run nonprofit organizations supporting the community
- Recommending specific community needs that demonstrate effective ways of accomplishing the business's philanthropic objectives
- Providing status reports to ensure that the business's grants have been effectively utilized by the recipient nonprofit organizations,

Some business leaders contribute to the community's endowment fund in order to have confidence that their gifts will be part of a legacy that by will address immediate community issues for decades to come.

Private Foundations

In recent years, families who have established private foundations have found that by converting their private foundation to a Donor Advised Fund with the Community Foundation offers a number of benefits that include:

- Avoiding burdensome reporting requirements and certain taxes imposed on private foundations
- The founding donors' philanthropic wishes will continue to be honored, and although family members continue to make granting decisions, the Community Foundation will ensure that the foundation's original philanthropic objectives remain in place.

Allied Professionals

Individuals throughout southern Arizona rely on the advice of professionals to help guide their estate-planning decisions. Many of those professionals – including attorneys, financial planners, CPA's, trust officers, investment advisors and insurance agents – have come to rely on the Southern Arizona Community Foundation to help implement their clients' philanthropic wishes. These allied professionals, in collaboration with donor services staff from CFSA, are able to insure that each donor's intent is honored and fulfilled by:

- Establishing Donor Advised Funds through the Community Foundation to help individuals simplify their charitable giving
- Administering charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities, ensuring timely distribution of income back to their clients and providing for gifts to charity afterward
- Helping their clients establish endowment funds for charities they support, with the assurance that the funds will be well-managed and distributions will be made annually to the intended charities
- Creating a mechanism to make charitable gifts at death by establishing a fund today that is funded at the time the estate is distributed
- Providing mechanisms for the distribution of assets that may be difficult for a client's favorite charity to accept (such as ownership of a business or of real estate).

The Community Foundation for Southern Arizona is our community's endowment.

For a confidential, no-obligation meeting with one of our professionals, please call us at (520) 770-0800.

Legacy Society

The Legacy Society recognizes donors whose far-sighted generosity will benefit future generations through deferred gifts through their estate plans. These individuals made a commitment to the future of our community by naming the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona in their wills, qualified retirement plans, life insurance policies, trusts or other instruments. We recognize these individuals and appreciate their generosity and thoughtfulness.
